BRYAN GIVEN SCORING

Stanchfield of New York Delegation Describes Nebraskan as Office-Seeking Marplot.

Convention Hall, Baltimore, July 1.—The convention hall was crowded early and prominent delegates were warmly received as they entered. Bryan was given an especially enthusiastic reception.

"We are prepared to stay until snow flies," said ex-Congressman James C. Sullivan of Chicago, who was in caucus since 10 o'clock. At 11 o'clock the Illinois delegation decided to continue voting for Clark. Senator Len of Tennessee announced that he would vote for Wilson.

Chairman James called the convention to order at 11:30. Bryan, who had been in caucus since 10 o'clock, was the first to speak. He reviewed the New York delegation, declaring it included jurists, lawyers and business men of known standing.

"It is by common consent the most representative delegation that ever came to a national convention from New York. If these be the puppets of wax that Bryan refers to, we say to that money-grubbing, office-seeking, public-hunting marplot of Nebraska."

Stanchfield could not conclude the sentence. It was drowned by a burst of cheers.

BRYANISM FATAL STIGMA.

While the speaker delivered the attack, Bryan sat quietly in his seat, and occasionally smiled. "I desire to say again the vote of New York is vital to success," continued the speaker. "And no man can go forth from this convention stigmatized and branded with Bryanism and come within a half million votes of success."

NEBRASKA INCLUDED.

the history of New York politics. Delegates showed signs of becoming impatient.

"There is no limit to the gentlemanly time," demanded a Michigan delegate.

"New York has a right to be heard on the floor of the convention," returned Stanchfield.

"The integrity of every delegate is at stake," he declared.

Stanchfield's bitter attack on Bryan as one of the plutocrats whose name should be linked with Morgan, Belmont and Ryan. Any man who had been writing the Chicago republican convention in favor of Bryan's party and ally, Roosevelt, for pay, should be expelled from this convention. Bryan was opposed to any candidate except Bryan. Stanchfield closed with announcing his vote for Wilson.

CONVENTION IN DISORDER.

At the conclusion Stanchfield threw the convention in disorder with the declaration: "I cast my vote for Woodrow Wilson." As the roll proceeded it became apparent Clark would again get New York's 90 votes under the unit rule. It was generally believed the vote had been challenged and a poll demanded for the sole purpose of enabling Stanchfield to deliver his attack on Bryan.

CONGRESS VOTES A BILL OF FAITH IN ITS SPEAKER

Washington, July 1.—In answer to attacks upon Speaker Clark in the Baltimore convention, the house today adopted a resolution announcing entire faith in its presiding officer.

The resolution was offered by republican Representative Austin of Tennessee. It is as follows: "The members of this house, regardless of politics, express their full confidence in the honor, integrity and patriotism of the presiding officer of this house, the honorable Champ Clark."

It was passed unanimously, republicans and democrats applauding.

gan, Ryan and Belmont, the plutocrats of this convention, he omits one name. Outside of the three he has named the richest and most powerful plutocrat on the floor is the gentleman from Nebraska himself.

"If the New York delegation is to be prevented from participating, then any man who, for pay, has been writing from the floor of a republican convention in favor of Bryan's partner and ally, Roosevelt, ought also to be excluded."

FOR SELF ALONE.

"Colonel Bryan never intended to support the candidate of this convention unless that candidate was Bryan himself. We have heard for months that Bryan has been combating Underwood here and Wilson there, and Clark here, and Harmon there, working all the time in his own selfish interest to produce a deadlock here."

REFERS TO 1900.

"In the year 1900, I ran upon the democratic ticket with Colonel Bryan as a candidate of the party for governor and he polled with me upon that ticket more votes by upwards of a hundred thousand than he polled before or since. Therefore, I repeat among the friends of Colonel Bryan at least I am entitled to a hearing upon the floor of this convention. Let us look for a moment at the career of the Nebraska man, New York. We have here a democratic governor and a lieutenant governor. (Applause.)

PARKER BROUGHT IN.

"We have upon the delegation a candidate for president of the United States in 1904. (Applause.) I have an ex-judge of the supreme court of New York. We have lawyers of repute, business and professional men from every walk and department of life, and it is by common consent the most representative delegation that ever came to a national convention from the state of New York." (Renewed applause.)

Stanchfield bitterly attacked Bryan as one of the plutocrats whose name should be linked with Morgan, Belmont and Ryan. Any man who had been writing the Chicago republican convention in favor of Bryan's party and ally, Roosevelt, for pay, should be expelled from this convention. Bryan was opposed to any candidate except Bryan. Stanchfield closed with announcing his vote for Wilson.

DENEEN SEES DEFEAT WITH TAFT TICKET

Oyster Bay, July 1.—Robert R. McCormick of Chicago, leader of the Illinois delegation for Roosevelt at the republican convention, but who was one of the first to say he would not follow the former president in the formation of a new party, came to Oyster Bay today with the statement that Governor Deneen of Illinois who cast his lot with Taft, could not carry his state on the Taft ticket and that he (McCormick) had come here to open negotiations with the colonel. He intimated he had come here as an emissary from members of the republican organization.

"I have come to the conclusion Taft cannot carry Illinois," McCormick said.

Mike Walsh, a half breed Cherokee, and his squaw were rescued from a raft on which they had floated from Southern Oklahoma.

Walsh could speak little English, but indicated to his rescuers that when the floods visited the state several weeks ago he and the squaw were forced to seek refuge on the raft and with a small amount of food had remained on it ever since. The man's leg had been fractured and both he and the squaw were in a half-starved condition.

CLARK'S FORCES SPURRED ON BY BRYAN'S THRUST

Baltimore, July 1.—The day of rest was one of the busiest the democrats experienced since the convention opened. All were preparing for the renewal of the contest today and the outcome was considered as uncertain as on the first day. Clark's letter denouncing as "false and infamous" Bryan's implied accusations that the vote of New York placed the speaker under obligations to the moneyed interests is expected by Clark's managers to win back the votes he lost following the Nebraska declaration.

NEITHER WILL YIELD.

Very few leaders this morning thought there was any likelihood of a nomination today and expressed the opinion that the Clark-Bryan controversy has stirred up such strife that neither side would yield enough to make any difference in the conditions prevailing when the convention adjourned Saturday night.

DETERMINED TO STICK.

The Clark managers and delegates held a meeting this morning to discuss the situation. Delegates were told that Clark had determined to stick to the fight and were urged to remain firm until his nomination finally was attained.

TAFT ILLEGALLY NAMED IS CHARGE

Washington, July 1.—Works of California, progressive republican, in presenting in the senate today a resolution to investigate recent campaign contributions and expenditures, declared Taft's renomination had been procured unjustly and illegally.

California needed no new party, he said, and the republican party might better go down to defeat for the sins of its leaders, and come up four years hence, than to form a new party.

CUT IN FREIGHT RATES ON FLOUR IS ORDERED

Washington, July 1.—The interstate commerce commission today by a decision in what is known as "Flour City Case," favored a reduction in freight rates on flour from Minneapolis and other points in northwest to Atlantic seaboard.

*Bolt from convention of 1860, bolters nominating Breckinridge.

Not for more than a generation has the democratic party been deadlocked so long in a national convention on the selection of a presidential candidate.

With its 26 ballots already taken to no avail, the convention has beaten all records since 1860 for deadlocks in the democratic party.

The democrats have had little difficulty in naming their candidates since 1868. That was a convention which in many respects was fully as exciting as the present affair.

The balloting began Tuesday, with Pendleton in the lead, and continued practically without change until Thursday. The excitement in the convention was intense. Finally the voting became deadlocked between Hancock and Hendricks. On the 22nd ballot some votes were thrown to the chairman, Horatio Seymour. He declined at first, then a stampede set in, he withdrew from the contest and received the nomination.

In the 1880 republican convention the deadlock was equally exciting. Grant and Blaine had the balloting tied up for 34 ballots. On the 35th Garfield got 50 votes, and on the next polled 59 and was nominated.

NAVY TO SUPPLY MEN IN A STRIKE

Washington, July 1.—The navy will supply enlisted men to operate ships of the Panama canal railway between New York and Colon to replace those who struck this morning. Regular service of these ships is essential for supplying food and other necessities for canal workers as well as material for the canal itself.

Taft Names Bullitt.

Washington, July 1.—The president today nominated William Marshall Bullitt of Louisville, Ky., solicitor general of the United States to succeed Lehmann, resigned.

GOVERNOR WOODROW WILSON.

Millions in Property De- stroyed by Storm at Regina, Can.

BODIES ARE IN DEBRIS

Surrounding Territory Also Swept—Record of Fatalities Is Yet Lacking.

Regina, Sask., July 1.—The exact number of dead in the territory swept by yesterday's cyclone is not yet known, but estimates place the list at 300 or more, the injured at a much higher figure and the financial loss far into millions.

In Regina the identified dead number 29 and injured about as many more. The whole north side of the city is practically wiped out, and how many dead are in the ruins is not known.

PHONE GIRLS ESCAPE.

The telephone exchange was completely demolished, but of the 70 girls employed there was not one killed. Several were injured, however.

No definite news was received this morning from the surrounding territory, and the stories of great loss of life were as yet unconfirmed.

CENTER OF GREAT DISTRICT.

Regina is situated in a rolling prairie region, 358 miles west of Winnipeg, about 100 miles from the Canadian Pacific railroad. It is the capital of the province of Saskatchewan. It also is the headquarters for the northwest mounted police.

The city has become the center of railroad development. As a result it has become the trade center and financial axis of a large section.

It is the headquarters of the chief agricultural machinery and implement establishments of western Canada.

The enormous financial power of the railroads that traversed the section and the progressive spirit of the new province caused the erection of fine buildings early in its short history.

MANY LARGE STORES THERE.

There were a dozen churches in the city and a hundred stores. Two hotels that would do credit to a city five times its size and a dozen others have sprung up. There were a dozen bank buildings and grist and planing mills, marble and boat works, machine shops, sash and door factories, and administrative buildings for express, telephone and telegraph companies.

During the sessions of the provincial legislature the social life of the entire province centered in Regina.
